

August 28, 2013

We are very concerned about the proposed project at Fox Hill Estates and the impact it could have on our neighborhoods. More importantly, the dangerous precedent of spot zoning, which is contrary to Camden's Comprehensive Plan, could make us all vulnerable to future additional commercial developments in lovely residential areas of Camden. We hope the zoning Board firmly rejects this proposal.

Sincerely,

Bob & Barbara Furman
87 Chestnut Street