

Tuesday, October 29, 2013

Mr Wilson,

I am writing to express my concern about the request for zoning exception for Fox Hill. Its a slippery slope, once an exception is made, others will soon emerge on your door steps. Let's stick to the master plan and have business in business sections, residential in others as pre-defined. That's what we all bought into and the way life should be in Maine—simple and pure.

Keith and Diane Blizzard
118 Chestnut Street, Camden